

On the trip to the climbing hall in Meiringen-Hasliberg

The region Meiringen-Hasliberg is a well known region in the heart of Switzerland. All four elements shaped this impressive landscape and their people in the past: earth, air, weather and fire. So it is no wonder that this area was the birthplace of a lot of outdoor activities like alpinism and climbing.

Nowadays in Meiringen was built a big hall for all fans of climbing. So they can practice their hobby under all weather conditions. So, today we had the chance to go there get a look. Fortunately, we had the unique chance to get the kick of adrenalin.

At the beginning a lot of the kids were sitting on the fence. At one side there the respect of the wall and on the other side the adventuresomeness attracted all of us. It was really amazing how fast our kids were able to climb on the wall. Imagine: the top of the hall was on a height of 13 meters! Too early the whole trip was already over. Happy and tired the everybody was on the way back and dreamed to ...climb like Spiderman.

Every day a child of the swisscor camp tells us about the daily life in his own country and about his impression of the camp. Today we talk to Emran Redzepov (11) from Macedonia

What would you do at this moment, if you were at home in Macedonia?

Probably I would be playing football with my friends.

How is the community with the other children in the camp?

It's different. Some of the kids here are my friends, with others I have some differences.

What was your most impressive event in the camp?

There was not a particular event, that was impressive for me. It's the possibility to be here with my friends I like.

What is your favourite food?

I really like veal. My favourite drink is juice.

Is there somebody from your own country you think of a lot?

I don't know. I have a lot of friends in Macedonia, but no girlfriend. So, I would say no.

Summerfestival at Finsterwald

What an impressive sound from the traditional Alphorn musicians. They created a heart-warming atmosphere at the party.

Everybody enjoyed the nice playground

Two funny clowns entertained the Kids after dinner for about an hour.

A couple of hundred balloons flew to the heaven.

The kids had fun on the playground slide and - as we can see - they liked the BBQ a lot!
