

Some citations of VIP guests at the Swisscor camp 2006

„These children have not been left alone in Europe. Our country would like to bring them a piece of hope and peace with the existence of this camp.“
“The first edition of the Swisscor camp has been a short decide. Mr. Ogi and me had a lot of contact. Suddenly he asked me if I could help to organise this with the Swiss Army. After a short time, I decided to say yes.“
“I want to say thank you to the Spitalbatalion 5 for the good cooperation and the ambiance they mad here. This has been a very strong job!”
Mr. Liaudat, President of the foundation Swisscor

„Here are six nations together, who which have been in war against each other six years ago. The children here may be the leaders of their nations in a few year's time! They will bring the spirit of peace to their countries.“
“These camps will have an influence to the six countries over the next years.“
“Starting at the beginning of the new millennium I decided as the new president of the Swiss Federation to start this project. Until now, 700 children were given some help during these camps.“
Mr. Ogi, Special Consultant UNO, Former minister of Switzerland, Founder & President of Swisscor

„The children should never forget these peaceful days they put together and take there memories home.“
Mr. Roubaty, Brigadier

„The camp was welcome at the politic institutions here in the canton of Obwalden. The place where the holy brother Klaus lived is in our canton and has a peace-bringing influence too.“
Mr. Wallimann, Landammann of Obwalden

“It would be nice if other organisations could help the Swiss Army leading such a camp. Maybe we could engage some schools too. It would be interesting for the Swiss nation to do that in this way.“
Mrs. Rindlisbacher, Oberst RKD

„I'm impressed of the good organisation around this camp. In a very short time the stuff did a lot for these children. In Macedonia, the contacts have already been very good between all the involved organisations.“
Mr. Füglistler, Ambassador of Switzerland, Macedonia

<http://camp06.swisscor.ch>

Issue # 12 / 20 August 2006

I'm Aldin

Every day a child of the swisscor camp tells us about the daily life in his own country and about his impression of the camp. Today we spoke with Aldin Omeragic (10) from Bosnia I Hercigowina:

What are your impression of the camp?
 My impression of the camp is very good.

What do you know about Switzerland?
 I know that Switzerland is one of the richest countries in the whole world and I heard that the chocolate is very good. And that's really true.

What makes you happy?
 In the last few days there were many moments when I was happy because of all the interesting excursions and walkings. But I think the climbing was my happiest moment.

Does anything make you sad?
 No, nothing makes me sad!

Can you tell us about your wishes?
 Well, I'm wishless and happy.

To whom would you like to send your greetings?
 To my children's home called "Bjelove", to my parents and Samira, my governess.

Weather today

Weather tomorrow

Poem of the day

Breakfest

Lunch
 Package for BBQ
 Drink

Dinner
 Pasta with cheese
 Pear & Choco cake

Swisscor World

Impressions of the visiting Day at the Swisscor camp 2006

Singing and playing kids of the swisscor camp.

There were many reasons for the visitor's Day in the Swisscor camp. Celebrating the kids in particular. Furthermore the purpose of the Swisscor foundation. And most of all to celebrate the freedom between the South-east European countries. Take a few event-impressions with you and enjoy our visitor's Day-Special!

Starting in the morning, a group of soldiers built a big tower and some booths for serving our guests.

Soldiers are painting the symbol of the camp: the heart.

Kosova showed historical facts and other traditional items

Specialities and the flag of Monenegr

Bosia i Herzigowina

Two serbain kids with typical food

The visiting day took part by sunshine and a very good atmosphere. Every countries presentation as folklore song and food specialities impressed the visitors. After a delicious lunch and many impressions and interesting and beautiful day ended for all the kids, guests and helpers..

The Macedonian presentation

The booth of Serbia

The military orchestra